Annual report 2022

In 2022, the Center of Analysis of International Relations (AIR Center) continued its role of providing strategic insights and policy recommendations pertaining to international affairs, conducting analyses of the post-conflict period as well as examining the challenges and opportunities for international cooperation with a particular focus on the South Caucasus.

The activities of the AIR Center were primarily directed towards the preparation of reports, the establishment of novel partnerships, the organization of events and webinars centered around various issues important for Azerbaijan and surrounding region, the publication of articles in both domestic and international media, and active participation on various social media platforms.
